

The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, California

In the matter of:

Resolution No. 2009/61

recognizing the contributions of Daniel (Dan) Gillan on 30 years of service with Contra Costa County.

Daniel (Dan) Gillan began his employment with Contra Costa County in March 1979 in the Public Works Department as a Stationary Fireman standing a boiler watch at the old county hospital in Martinez ; and Whereas, Dan was hired as a permanent employee in August 1980; and Whereas Dan enrolled in Diablo Valley College taking courses in refrigeration, air conditioning and basic electricity which contributed to his promotion to Operating Engineer in April 1982; and
Whereas, the General Services Department was created in by the Board of Supervisors October 1, 1985 and Dan was transferred to the General Services Department; and
Whereas, in 1986 Dan began an assignment at the old Juvenile Hall facility in Martinez when the facility received heating and kitchen steam from two separate boiler plants; and
Whereas, Dan suggested interconnecting boilers at Juvenile Hall and the County realized an annual energy savings of $8,500 as only one boiler would be needed during summer months; and
Whereas, Dan was promoted to Lead Operating Engineer in 1990 and assigned to the Marsh Creek Detention Facility to supervise inmate work crews for several years; and Whereas, Dan was recognized as a member of the accreditation team at the Marsh Creek Detention Facility; and
Whereas, Dan was recognized as a member of the emergency response team during the December, 2005 floods caused by heavy rains; and
Whereas, Dan has received numerous commendations from various County departments for his hard work and expertise; and
Whereas, Dan is recognized for applying his professional and technical knowledge, demonstrating the ability to find solutions at innumerable projects located throughout the County; and
Whereas, Dan has received several commendations from the General Services Department for his excellent attendance; and
Whereas, Dan is respected by his co-workers and superiors for his knowledge and dedication and continues to perform his work for the General Services Department and the County with a personal commitment, integrity and honesty over the years; and That Daniel Gillan be recognized for 30 years of high quality service to Contra Costa County.
