-- Henry Harteveltdt, former executive at Continental Airlines, in Forbes April 5, 2016

"JetSuite X provides many of the comforts usually associated with private jet travel but for the price of a traditional airline seat."

-- Neil Cavuto Fox Business, May 26, 2016

"Flying in a private jet is usually reserved for billionaires, rockstars and politicians. However, a private chartering company is about to change all that by offering travelers a seat on "everybody's private jet" at an affordable price.."
