Attention Stephanie,

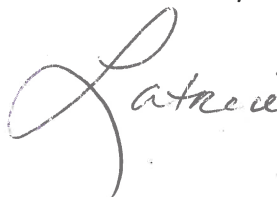

On October 14th 2015 8:30 A.M. Mack and Ron (of maintenance) came to my unit to wax the floor. After Ron finished, he told me to let the floor dry for a couple of hours. I said okay and that was it. So I thought. Later on that evening, I went downstairs to get my clothes out of the machine. While going down the stairs, and attempting to step from the last step onto the floor, I flew into the air landing on my right side. I twisted my ankle, my phone flew up in the air hitting the wall causing several cracks in the face of the phone. When I landed on that floor, I bounced than rolled, causing contusions to the lower left and right side of my body. I had pain immediately all over my body.

Hearing my fall, my daughter immediately came to help me. Hearing my daughter coming, knowing the immediate danger, I yelled up to her that the entire downstairs was flooded. Chauntae Bates came down stairs to pick me up from the floor. She helped me upstairs, where I got her phone to immediately call emergency maintenance. Maintenance said that they would arrive within about twenty minutes. No one showed, so I called again about 9^{pm}. At that time, I was told that I didn't have to call back. They would call when someone was on the way. Maintenance didn't arrive until about 11:55 p.m.

By that time my ankle had swollen, and I was in extreme pain. When Tommy, arrived to assess the damage, he ^{had} a camera on hand. At that time, I was rushed to Kaiser Richmond by my daughter. Arriving home about 2:30am I noticed that Tommy had completed getting up the water from downstairs. The next morning, I went downstairs to see what I could salvage. At that time I noticed that my couch, coffee table, one end table, family pictures, and clothes was a total lost.
