Dear Mr. Ray:

This letter is written to advise of the Concord City Council's recommendation of a replacement representative on to the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging, due to the resignation of Ben Hornstein.

To ensure the City of Concord remains compliant in all matters related to representatives serving on the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging, the Council, at its meeting held September 12, 2017, confirmed the recommendation made by the City's Commission on Aging that Fuad Omran serve as the City's representative to the Advisory Council of Aging. I have enclosed a copy of the staff report to the City Council supporting this action; Mr. Omran's application is on file in the City Clerk's Office.

Please do not hesitate to contact me at (925) 671-3390 or joelle.fockler@cityofconcord.org if you have any questions or need additional information.

Sincerely,

Joelle Fockler, MMC
City Clerk

Staff Report

Date: September 12, 2017
To: City Council
From: Laura M. Hoffmeister, Mayor
Subject: Considering confirmation of Commission on Aging recommendation for City representative to serve on the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging.

Report in Brief

Consider confirmation of the Commission on Aging recommendation of member Fuad Omran to serve as the City representative on the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging and direct the City Clerk to pass the information to the County Board of Supervisors for further action. The Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging is a County committee; therefore, the County Board of Supervisors makes the formal appointment for the seat reserved for the Concord representative.

Recommended Action

Confirm the recommendation of Commission on Aging member Fuad Omran to serve as the City representative on the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging.

Background

The City of Concord is authorized to have a representative serve on the Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging through the approval of the County Board of Supervisors. This representative has typically been a member of the City's Commission on Aging (COA), selected by consensus of his or her peers. On October, 8, 2013, the City Council confirmed the COA's recommendation that Ben Hornstein serve on the Advisory Council on Aging following the resignation of Ms. Davis-Lucey. Mr. Hornstein resigned from his position on the County Advisory Council on Aging at the end of 2015 but is continuing to serve on the City of Concord COA. On March 22, 2016, the City Council confirmed the recommendation of Cathy McCaughey; however, Ms. McCaughey declined the recommendation.

At its August 23, 2017, meeting, the COA recommended Fuad Omran to serve on the County Advisory Council on Aging. Mr. Omran was recently appointed to the Commission on Aging, and his peers on the COA recommended his appointment to serve as the City's Representative on the County Advisory Council on Aging. A copy of his application is on file in the City Clerk's Office.

The Contra Costa County Advisory Council on Aging advises the Area Agency on Aging on all matters related to the development and administration of senior programs for compliance with the mandates of the Older American Act. The Council is comprised of 40 members, each appointed by the County Board of Supervisors in partnership with the member recommendations made by other local agencies, commissions and advisory groups.

The Area Agency on Aging has clarified that upon the confirmation of the member appointment by the Board of Supervisors for an initial two-year term, members continue consecutive terms until the member resigns, fails to fulfill their responsibilities, or notification is received from the designating City recommending appointment of another individual.
