6. Economic Development Program priorities and process update (Review and Discuss)

Airport staff continues to look at ways to attract businesses and tenants to Contra Costa County Airports. After completing the Economic Development Incentive Program (EDIP) process, the Airports Division completed an update to its strategic plan, in August 2017, to create a pathway that best positions the Airports for regional competitiveness. The top identified priority projects/programs mirrored those identified during the EDIP process. The top identified priorities are:

- 1. Evaluate rates and charges to increase regional marketplace competitiveness
- 2. Develop a Terminal building to create a hub or "heart" of Buchanan Field
- 3. Construct a hangar with office space at Byron Airport to attract new business tenants
- 4. Make aesthetic improvements to signage and landscaping at Buchanan Field

Airport staff plans to bring the top four priorities to the Board for consideration in November.

7. 3-Acre Non-Aviation Business Park Development at Buchanan Field (Review and Discuss)

This 3-acre parcel is located on the northeast side of Marsh Drive and Sally Ride Drive. Montecito Commercial Group is proposing a 52,500 square foot non-aviation commercial industrial business park. The lease is anticipated to be scheduled for the Board of Supervisors review/approval by the end of this calendar year, when the environmental process should be completed for a ground breaking event in late spring 2018.

8. 4.6-Acre Development Proposal at Buchanan Field (Review and Discuss)

This parcel is located on the northwest corner of Marsh Drive and Solano Way. A developer was selected through the solicitation process in January 2017. The developer is identified as the master sub-tenant and is in the process of finalizing an internal lease agreement, then will be submitting through the City of Concord's entitlement process. Airport staff will continue to provide updates regarding this parcel.

Adejumoke "Jaye: Akin-Taylor, CCM, PMP, Assoc. DBIA

Seasoned Professional, solving the puzzle of Project Management.

Introduction

The purpose of this handout is to provide you with a visual overview of my personal/professional profile.

I have worked in the Project/Construction Industry for over 27 years, and I have been fortunate to work on an array of diverse projects.

My early successes and failures forged a deeper sense for due diligence and perfection in my management style.

What I possibly pride myself for the most, are the core values my grandmother instilled in my young mind; respect, integrity and honesty. This became my mantra and modus operandi in conducting both my personal and professional life amid sometimes the most challenging and opposing circumstances, and I can confidently say this has helped me triumphed though not without bruises or scratches!

I learnt early on in life that hard work is a natural by product of respect, integrity and honesty, and I am especially grateful for the gift of sense and ability to live by the values I learnt as a little girl from one of the strongest, passionate and loving woman that walked the earth.

I am hopeful the content of the following slides will give you deeper insights into my work ethics and capability and aide your conclusion that I am best suited to manage the process and factors to successfully deliver these projects.

On the next slide, you will find table of contents that describes the information in this handout.

Again thank you for the opportunity and I am hopeful of a positive outcome.

Respectfully
Jumoke Akin-Taylor.

RE:

APPLICATION FOR AT-LARGE MEMBER AVIATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

Committee Chairperson and/or Selection Committee Members:

I noticed that you had an opening for an At-Large position on the Contra Costa County Aviation Advisory Committee (AAC), and I wanted to submit my application for this position. I have attached the completed BOARDS, COMMITTEE, AND APPLICATION form, as well as my resume, for this position.

Based on my background, I believe that I would make an excellent candidate for this committee position for a number of reasons, including the following, which for convenience I have listed in a bullet format.

- 1. I am a long-standing Contra Costa resident, and lived in the County since I move here from Washington, DC, in 1978.
- 2. I am a forensic and clinical psychologist who has been practicing since I earned my doctorate in 1982 and then became licensed in California in 1984. I specialized in the diagnosis and treatment of persons with addictive disease, and have managed two different alcohol and drug abuse clinics (Oakland & Stockton) for the Kaiser Permanente Medical Group. I retired from Kaiser in 2007 after 21 years.
- 3. After retiring from Kaiser, I expanded my psychology private practice, which has always been located in our county (Martinez & Pleasant Hill), from part time and to include psychological evaluation in a variety of areas, including being on an exclusive FAA list to evaluate pilots and air traffic controllers. I also perform workers' compensation, child custody, disability, and substance abuse evaluations.

4. Lastly, I am also a pilot myself and fly exclusively out of Buchanan (CCR) field. I have just over 900 hours and fly with one of this airport's flying clubs. Therefore, I am also aware of a number of airport and aviation issues since I have been flying out of our airport since the mid nineties.

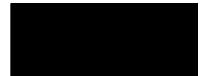

I look forward to the next steps in this application process, and thank you in advance for your consideration of me for this committee position.

RE: At-Large Position – Aviation Advisory Committee

Please accept my application for the At-Large Position (attached) for the Contra Costa Aviation Advisory Committee. This memo provides additional information regarding my interest, and why I believe I am a strong candidate for the Committee.

Aviation has been a lifelong interest for me, cultivated by my father who had been in the Army Air Force. He supported my interest by encouraging me to train for a pilot's license when I was in my late teens. I obtained my Private Pilot's license at age 20. I must've imparted my aviation enthusiasm to my son, who is now in a management position for Signature Aviation, SFO.

In the interest of full disclosure, I use a wheelchair and occasionally a power scooter. This is due to my exposure to polio as a young child. While I don't see my disability affecting my ability to be a productive member of this committee, I defer that question to the Board of Supervisors. In fact, my disability could be viewed as an asset should discussions come before the committee concerning access for individuals with special needs. I noticed the August 10, 2017 minutes of the Aviation Advisory meeting included the remodeling of existing buildings or a new terminal.

Throughout my 30 year career as a manufacturer's representative for Luxottica Group I was one of the top 5 percent sales reps each year for the company. I was successful in part, because of my client relationship building and communication skills. For example, I opened and serviced the Kaiser Permanente NorCal account, and assisted in negotiating contracts for what would become the second largest account for the company in the United States.

In 2005, for mobility reasons, I took early retirement. For 10 years, I became a "volunteer" staff member for my wife's executive search business. Responsibilities included handling payroll, taxes, insurance, and repositioning the 401K and payroll services for better employee returns and cost containment.

Finally, my personal interests are American history, travel, and culinary pursuits!

Thank you for your consideration. I look forward to the opportunity to meet the Committee in person.

Contra Costa County Aviation Advisory Committee Member At Large, 2015 - Present

Key Accomplishments and Activities:

- Worked with airport management to address citizens' noise complaints near Buchanan Field and Byron Airport.
- Flew a citizen in our personal aircraft around Buchanan Field and the San Francisco Bay to address questions regarding low flying aircraft over his residence. Prepared discussion materials to explain aircraft performance, noise management procedures, and applicable Federal regulations and guidelines. Fellow AAC member Tom Weber participated in this flight and discussion.
- Engaged local officials of the International Aerobatic Club (IAC) to address noise complaints from aerobatic activity in the Brentwood area. As a result, the offending pilot (not from Buchanan or Byron) was contacted by the IAC and informed of proper procedures, which resolved the issues. Following this incident, Dale Roberts, one of the IAC officials engaged, joined the AAC representing District 1. Overall this project greatly improved our ability to address and mitigate noise from aerobatic and other aircraft operations.
- Met with a citizen from Pleasant Hill who had made several noise complaints. We explained that most of the traffic over his residence come from professional flight training operations at Buchanan Field. Prepared discussion materials to explain aircraft performance, noise management procedures, and applicable Federal regulations and guidelines. Fellow AAC members Tom Weber and Dale Roberts participated in this discussion.
- Participated in the CCC Economic Development Incentive Program (EDIP) for Buchanan Field and Byron Airport.

- Provided written commentary to the FAA regarding installation of large wind turbines near Byron Airport.
- Chair of the Working Group to refine the definition of "at-large" committee membership.

VENTURE CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Mr. Gunderson is a Managing Director with AutoTech Ventures, a venture capital firm concentrating on startup opportunities in the quickly evolving ground transportation sector. He was previously Senior Advisor to ATV from its formation in 2013.

From 2006 to 2010, Mr. Gunderson was a Venture Partner with CMEA Capital, an early-stage, high-technology venture capital investment firm, with US$1.2B under management. He helped raise CMEA Fund VII, a $400M venture fund investing in Information Technology, Life Sciences, and Energy and Materials (E&M). He was responsible for managing relationships with several of CMEA's corporate investors. Mr. Gunderson developed CMEA's E&M strategy and established the firm's E&M deal flow, which grew to nearly 3000 business plans per year.

Mr. Gunderson lead CMEA's investments in NuScale Power (http://www.nuscalepower.com/, scalable modular nuclear power plants), and Contour Energy Systems (http://www.contourenergy.com/, fluorine-ion batteries), and served on the Boards of Directors of both companies. Both NuScale and Contour were spin-outs from universities, and he formed the investor syndicates to establish the companies and hired the management teams. Fluor Corporation acquired a majority equity stake in NuScale in 2011.

Previously, Mr. Gunderson was co-Founder of Nth Power LLC, one of the first energy-focused venture capital firms in the world. (www.nthpower.com) He was Managing Director of Nth Power from 1992 to 2006. During his tenure, Nth Power raised four strategic venture funds totaling $260M, and made investments in over thirty energy technology start-ups. Nth Power's deal flow grew from inception to approximately 500 business plans per year, which at the time was the largest deal flow in the energy technology sector.

Nth Power was founded and built on deep strategic relationships with energy-industry investors. It was through this experience that Mr. Gunderson developed the techniques and programs to involve strategic investors in all phases of the venture investment process. Nth Power's strategic investors included numerous US and Canadian energy companies, plus ABB, Chevron, Dow Chemical, Emerson Electric, and Electricite de France.

CORPORATE MANAGEMENT AND DIRECTORSHIPS

Mr. Gunderson is a Member of the National Association of Corporate Directors, and is a graduate of NADC's Director Masters Program. His particular governance specialties are in compensation and corporate strategy.

From 2007 to 2014, Mr. Gunderson served as Chairman of the Board of Contour Energy Systems, first representing CMEA, and later as an Independent Director. He also served as Contour's interim CEO in 2012, stabilized the company following the departure of the previous CEO, and lead the company until a permanent CEO was recruited.

Since 2007, Mr. Gunderson has served on the board of directors of Gentherm, Inc. (http://www.gentherm.com/) (NASDAQ: THRM), a supplier of heating, cooling and power generation systems for automotive, medical, industrial and military applications. Gentherm has operations in the US, Canada, Germany, Hungary, Korea, Japan, Ukraine, Macedonia and China. Mr. Gunderson is a member of the Compensation Committee (Chairman), Nominating Committee, Governance Committee and Technology Committee.

Mr. Gunderson was also a member of the advisory board of Scion-Sprays, Ltd., a UK-based manufacturer of fuel injection and engine management systems for small internal combustion engines. Scion-Sprays supplies engine management systems to large European and Asian motorbike manufacturers, and was acquired by a large European automotive company in early 2012.

Stan Klezmer and Anton Kast Take to the Skies with the UC Flying Club

Stan Klezmer, a Berkeley Lab retiree, has a bird's-eye view of the world at the helm of one of UC Flying Club's planes.

BY JON BASHOR

Since retiring from the Lab in 1993, Stan Klezmer's future plans have been up in the air. Really. And he credits the UC Flying Club with giving him the lift he needed.

The club, established in 1939, provides affordable instruction and access to six aircraft. Membership is open to members of the UC family, including Berkeley Lab employees.

"If you ever thought about learning to fly, or if you used to and want to_take it up again, the club allows you to take a flight with an instructor to see if you're interested in pursuing it further," said Klezmer, who is also secretary to the club board of directors.

A Lab employee since 1952, Klezmer first got the flying bug some 20 years ago, although he did not pursue his pilot's license at that time. When his father died three years ago he decided to start putting some of his life's goals back in order—including trying to take up flying again.

His club affiliated instructor, who flies a Federal Express plane, took him through a refresher course. "I found I still remembered the basics—how to take off, take a heading and make a climb," says Klezmer, who turns 66 in March.

"Now I'm very comfortable in the air, and have the keys to three planes in my pocket."

To qualify for his license, Klezmer still needs to get in some more night flying and complete his cross-country phase of learning. This involves landing and taking off at two other airports. Klezmer's plan is to take off from the club's base at Oakland airport, head up to Little River for lunch, then drop by Ukiah, Chico, Stockton, and Livermore before heading home. "The idea is just to get used to finding other airports," he says.

The club offers a choice of planes to rent, ranging from single-engine, two-seat Cessnas to a four-seat, high-performance Beechcraft Sierra. The rental fee for planes starts at a mere $41 an hour, including fuel. This, coupled with monthly dues of $37, makes the UC club one of the most affordable ways to learn to fly, Klezmer says. The club's non-profit status means the cost is lower than commercial outfits, and instruction can be arranged to fit nearly any schedule.

Anton Kast, a physicist in the Lab's Mathematics Department, was in his fourth year of graduate work at UC Berkeley when he joined the club "to escape my studies." Flying three times a week and studying volumes of regulations, Kast earned his pilot's license in six months and added an instrument rating after six more months.

"I always liked airplanes and wanted to fly since I was a little boy," Kast said.

ROBERT D. MATCHETTE

November 6, 2017

Clerk of the Board of Supervisors Contra Costa County County Administration Building Room 106 651 Pine Street Martinez, CA 94553

To Whom It May Concern:

Please accept the enclosed application for the At-Large position for the Contra Costa County Aviation Advisory Committee (AAC) in the upcoming selection process.

As a commercial pilot and Walnut Creek resident I have both an interest in the promotion of general aviation safety and its place in the community. General aviation is important to our community on many levels from corporate aviation to air ambulance service and private aircraft operators. The community benefits from a robust, yet safe aviation community operating at Buchanan Field and Byron Airport. It is critical that the community and the operators both based and transiting these airports work together to promote both commerce and safety.

My experience in aviation extends over thirty years in general aviation, corporate aviation, scheduled airline operations as well as aviation safety research for both NASA and aircraft manufacturers. While my current primary occupation is a MD11 captain for UPS operating worldwide, I also maintain experience in general aviation flying out of Buchanan Field at Sterling Aviation.

The part of my career most relevant to this position was Chief Pilot and Maintenance Director of the Palo Alto Flying Club between 1985-1993, where I managed a 70 aircraft fleet at Palo Alto Airport (KPAO). Among my duties was community liason with the City of Palo Alto regarding noise abatement issues. I also have over twenty years of experience as an aviation researcher with both NASA and in private industry.

I strongly believe that my aviation experience would be a tremendous asset to the advisory board and eagerly await the opportunity to interview for the position.

ATTACHMERNT

Experience Resume for the Charles Taylor Master Mechanic Award

I graduated from Spartan School of Aeronautics, Tulsa Oklahoma in September 1963 receiving my A & P license #1561526 in October 1963. I returned to Indiana where I was immediately hired full time at Bob Shank Airport in Indianapolis by Ned Bottoms and Charles Lamb, working light aircraft. I was employed by TWA full time from March 6, 1964, but I still continued to work at Shanks part-time until Nov.1967 when I moved to Los Angeles with TWA to work on their C-880 and B-707 Check-C aircraft.

I worked C-880 and B-707 Check-C aircraft at TWA, moving to Terminal Mechanic in late 1967, transferring to Travis AFB in mid-1969 to work TWA Military Charters- MACPAC. When Travis AFB operations closed for TWA, I transferred to Las Vegas, becoming a Lead Mechanic by 1971.

I accepted a promotion to Supervisor-Line Maintenance for Denver station in 1972, remaining there until 1982 when I accepted a transfer to San Francisco supervising Ground Operations, Hangar and Terminal until 1986.

I left TWA to join United Airlines as a Foreman- Line Maintenance in June of 1986 serving in that position until successfully selected in 1990 as a UAL Quality Assurance Representative, moving to Maintenance Planning in 1993, and to On-Call Maintenance Coordinator with SAMC (System Aircraft Maintenance Control). I was working that position when the 9-11 attacks changed our world and the airline industry. I accepted an early retirement and left UAL Nov.1st, 2001.

I worked on light aircraft in Livermore, CA and B-727 aircraft sales for dismantling to C.A.S.E. in Houston, TX prior to a call from Hawaiian Air.

I was hired by Hawaiian Airlines as their ETOPS Operations Auditor in August of 2002, working directly for the Senior Director of Quality Assurance, Dave Chaney. I was responsible for all stations on the mainland, assuring our ETOPS maintenance operations were properly done by OAL and vendors, auditing fueling and fuel storage, Dangerous Goods shipping, and de-icing operations, Training, and one B-767 delivery from Boeing. I retired from Hawaiian Airlines in 2013 but continue to work light aircraft part time at Red Sky Aviation in Livermore when Bob Haley calls.

Marcus Yoder

Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, Room 106, County Administration Building, 651 Pine Street, Martinez, CA 94553

October 11, 2017

Dear Madam or Sir,

With this set of documents, I would like to submit my application to become the next At-Large Member of the Aviation Advisory Committee of Contra Costa County (CCC).

I moved to CCC in December of 2014, after 14, years on the peninsula, when I combined two households, to establish a new home for the five of us here in Contra Cost County.

I am applying for this position as I see the great potential for CCC to continue to absorb the growth demands of the greater Bay Area, and thrive. In order to enable this, one of the factors will be easy access to air travel. While the Bay Area has two international airports to service long-haul travel, what the county needs is greater availability and options for short-haul flights both within the state and with neighboring states.

I have been in technology for the past 25, years and travel extensively. I have been a United Global Services customer for many years, and am currently a Southwest A-List Preferred member. More importantly, I am an early customer of JetSuiteX, which operates out of Buchanan Field. As I confer with industry executives and burgeoning air transport services entrepreneurs, I see a great opportunity for employees at all levels of CCC companies to take advantage of local air travel access points. I would provide a business viewpoint to the options laid before the Aviation Advisory Committee to the benefit of Contra Costa County.

I respectfully request the opportunity to serve.

Sincerely,

Marcus Yoder

Clerk of the Boad of Supervisors, Room 106 County Administation Bldg. (e51 Pine Street Matinez, CA 94553

Subcommittee Report

AIRPORTS COMMITTEE

Meeting Date: 01/10/2018

Subject: Status of the County's application to participate in the Unmanned Aircraft

Systems Integration Pilot Program (Review and Discuss)

Submitted For: Keith Freitas, Airports Director

Department: Airports

Referral No.:
Referral Name:

Presenter: Contact: Beth Lee, (925) 681-4200

Referral History:

On November 11, 2017 Supervisor Diane Burgis submitted a Board Order requesting support for the County to submit a notice of interest to participate in the Federal Aviation Administration's (FAA) Unmanned Aerial System (UAS) Integration Pilot Program.

Referral Update:

Contra Costa County submitted, to the FAA, their notice of interest in participating in the FAA's UAS Integration Pilot Program. The County has teamed with the California Department of Technology (lead applicant) and several private UAS companies as a partnership for the FAA UAS Integration Pilot Program. The FAA will ultimately select approximately five UAS Integration Pilot Program teams/sites.

Recommendation(s)/Next Step(s):

The FAA will make a selection based on the applications received.

Fiscal Impact (if any):

Since the lead applicant for the FAA UAS Integration Pilot Program is now the California Department of Technology the bulk of the financial impact related to the staff time associated with data collection and completion of reports to the FAA are expected to be minimal to the County.
