

EXCLUSIVE NEGOTIATING RIGHTS AGREEMENT
(RODEO SENIOR)

This Exclusive Negotiating Rights Agreement (“Agreement”) is dated March 26, 2019 (the “Effective Date”), and is between the COUNTY OF CONTRA COSTA, a political subdivision of the State of California (the “County”), and CITY VENTURES HOMEBUILDING, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the “Developer”).

RECITALS

- A. The County, in its capacity as housing successor to the Contra Costa County Redevelopment Agency, is the owner of approximately 1.16 acres of real property located at 223 and 199 Parker Avenue in Rodeo, California, having Assessor’s Parcel Numbers 357-161-001, 357-161-002, and 357-161-013, as more particularly described in Exhibit A (the “Property”).
- B. The County desires the Property to be developed in a manner that will result in a mixed-use residential neighborhood with 24 units of for-sale townhomes and 2,000 square feet of commercial space and a public plaza (together, the “Development”).
- C. Developer has developed projects similar to the proposed Development, including the development of a 36-unit mixed-use project on approximately 2 acres in Union City, California; a 25-unit mixed-use project on approximately 1.2 acres in Milpitas, California, and a 35-unit mixed-use project on approximately 1.7 acres in South San Francisco.
- D. The purpose of this Agreement is twofold. First, it is intended to enable the parties to assess the feasibility of the Development. Second, if the Development is determined to be feasible, it is intended to enable the parties to negotiate a disposition and development agreement (a “DDA”). Under the DDA, the Property would be conveyed to the Developer for construction of the Development.
- E. Because the property is a housing asset of the former Redevelopment Agency, its disposition is governed by the County, in its capacity as housing successor, and is subject to the requirements of Health and Safety Code Section 34176.

The parties therefore agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

Exclusive Negotiations

- 1. Good Faith Negotiations. The County and the Developer shall negotiate diligently and in good faith during the Negotiating Period (defined below), the terms of a DDA for the development of the Development on the Property.

Among the issues to be addressed in the negotiations are: (i) the price to be paid by the Developer for the Property, (ii) the physical and land title conditions of the Property, (iii) the type of entitlements necessary for the Development, (iv) the design, density, and mix of uses within the Development, (v) the development schedule for the Development, (vi) financing of the Development; (vii) the marketing of, sales process associated with, and management of the Development, (viii) housing affordability and the nature of affordability controls, (ix) the provision of public improvements related to the Development, (x) and the green building components of the Development.

2. Negotiating Period. The "Negotiating Period" under this Agreement is comprised of (i) an initial period of six months, beginning on the Effective Date, and, (ii) if agreed to by the parties in writing, three six-month renewal periods. The County's Director of Conservation and Development (the "Director") will make the determination for the County with respect to whether the Negotiating Period will be extended through the renewal periods. The Director's decision will be based on his reasonable judgment as to whether sufficient progress has been made toward a mutually acceptable DDA to merit further negotiations.
  - a. Subject to Section 2.b. below, if a DDA is not executed by the parties prior to the expiration of the Negotiating Period, this Agreement will terminate and neither party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement (with the exception of Section 22 (waiver of lis pendens), Section 23(d) (indemnity) and Section 25 (no commissions), all of which survive the termination of this Agreement). Upon the execution of a DDA by the County and the Developer, this Agreement will terminate and all rights and obligations of the parties with respect to the Development will be governed by the DDA.
  - b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if at the end of the Negotiating Period, a form of DDA has been mutually agreed upon by the Developer and the Director but the DDA has not been approved by the parties' governing bodies, the Director may extend the Negotiating Period to the date on which the County holds a public hearing to consider approving the DDA.
3. Exclusive Negotiations. During the Negotiating Period, the County may only negotiate with the Developer regarding development of the Property and may not solicit or entertain bids or proposals for such development from any other entity.
4. Party Representatives. The Developer's representative to negotiate the DDA is Patrick Hendry, its Senior Vice President of Northern California. The County's representative to negotiate the DDA is Maureen Toms, its Deputy Director of Conservation and Development.

Any DDA resulting from negotiations pursuant to this Agreement will be effective only if it is considered and approved by the County Board of Supervisors in accordance with all legally required procedures, and if it is executed by duly authorized representatives of the County and the Developer. Until and unless a DDA is approved by the County Board and executed by the County and the Developer, no agreement drafts, actions, deliverables or communications arising from the performance of this Agreement will impose any legally binding obligation on either party to enter into or support entering into a DDA or be used as evidence of any oral or implied agreement by either party to enter into any other legally binding document.
