as a long time Bay Area resident I've seen toll increases in the last 30 plus years and none has been more interesting to me than the last several years when toll increases has been substantial specially for the average employees who drive across bridges. I'm very interested in understanding the intricacies around toll increases and how it work and how toll revenues are actually utilized or expended and accounted for. I will be glad to serve this committee as a way of serving my own community in Pittsburg. Thank you very much
