Narrative Report

- 1) List your goal(s) and objectives as it appears in your strategic and implementation plan. What and how did you revise the objectives due to COVID-19 and the US Census Bureau's operational adjustments?

Goals

1. Achieve a Self-Response Rate of at least 76.9% (2010 Participation Rate according to the US Census Bureau. Note, since our goals were developed, the Census Bureau has published estimated 2010 Self Response Rates. For Contra Costa County this is 72.1% and a more accurate comparison);
2. Increase participation in hard-to-count communities;
3. Collaborate with the U.S. Census Bureau, State, regional groups, the Regional CBO, Contra Costa cities and special districts, and community organizations to avoid duplication and effectively communicate the Census message;
4. Build additional capacity and strengthen Contra Costa County community-based organizations through Census outreach efforts.

Objectives

1. Messaging Partners: Community Partners agree to amplify Census messaging through social media, newsletters, and email blasts. Messages may be targeted to specific populations and in multiple languages as needed.
 2. Host Questionnaire Assistance Centers or Questionnaire Action Kiosks.
 3. Census Speakers Bureau: Work to match requests for a Census 2020 Speaker at community events with local trusted messengers, Complete Count Committee Members, and Census staff to present at various local events.
 4. Mini-Grant Program: Offer mini-grants to implement a Census Outreach idea, such as:
 - Community Events
 - Youth Film Festivals
 - Soccer Tournaments
 - CBO outreach efforts (to fund larger CBO outreach events to leverage existing resources)
 5. Adopt-a-Block Program: Community Organization volunteers to canvass in HTC Census Blocks to encourage residents to fill out their Census questionnaires. This program will work in concert with SwORD's live self-response data to target areas with a low self-response rate. Community Organizations and/or volunteers will be provided with training and a stipend for the canvassing.
- 2) Reflecting on your own operations and outreach strategies throughout the campaign, please provide a response with specific examples for the following questions. Please also indicate which timeframe you are referring to in your response (i.e., education, NRFU period).

Contracted partner's operations

What worked well operationally?

- Training trusted messengers in the education period months in advance of Census throughout the county to reach people directly in their own communities, particularly for communities who speak English as a second language. We heard time and again that residents preferred to see outreach in their native language even if they spoke English fluently.
- Subcontracting with local community-based organizations during the activation phase was an efficient way to get our funding out and into the hands of community members who could most effectively conduct outreach to their communities.
- Our Health, Housing, and Homelessness CORE Team was a major factor in our success with counting our unhoused population in the SBE and TNSOL portions of the Census. Although communications with our Regional Area Census Offices was not always clear, we were able to rely heavily on our CORE team to provide the needed information and conduct additional clean-up efforts with unhoused populations to ensure all our residents who were unhoused were enumerated correctly.

What hindered the operations?

- COVID-19 was, of course, the biggest hindrance to our contracted partners' operations. It completely derailed our strategy of peer-to-peer outreach and forced us to shift to a more digital/virtual approach as we all adjusted to the "new normal". Towards the end of the Census operations, we were able to conduct more in-person outreach as we adapted to the precautions needed to prevent spread of the virus.
- Second to COVID, the lack of information and communication from the USCB was an enormous hindrance in effectively reaching a complete count. For instance, in West County we never heard from the Oakland ACO about TNSOL operations and had to rely completely on our Health, Housing, and Homelessness Core Team to enumerate encampments, particularly in Richmond.
- In September as we attempted to do more in-person assistance, wildfires and smoky air thwarted our efforts.
- The social unrest and distrust of the government, particularly the Federal Government, greatly impacted our ability to reach communities who were wary of responding to the Census to begin with.
- Lack of communication and coordination from Mercury for micro-media campaign led to redundancies and wasted local resources.
- The County's contracting and invoicing process hindered the pace of grant approval and fund disbursement.
- Inconsistent data formats for planning and reporting activities required significant staff time to review and provide quality control.

Contracted partner's outreach

What outreach tactics worked well?

- Cultivating relationships between the county and our community-based organizations more than six months in advance of the Census count helped drum up more support and awareness of the census than in previous counts.
- Focusing efforts on peer-to-peer communication to engage all residents around the Census was pivotal to reach all residents in a way that was effective, culturally competent, and relevant to their own identities and backgrounds.
- Providing outreach material and website information in non-English languages contributed to a sense of inclusion for all Contra Costa county residents.
- Direct questionnaire assistance was far and away the most effective form of outreach that led to direct results of hard-to-count community members being counted accurately.
- Once COVID forced us to shift to more virtual and digital tactics, phone banking became a pivotal way for us to continue with some peer-to-peer outreach and ensure community members had not only responded to the Census, but were safe, healthy, and not in need of food or financial assistance.
- Hiring a Census Outreach Coordinator and Outreach Specialists (Interns) helped to provide dedicated staff time to focus on outreach activities.
- Strong collaboration and high level of communication among staff, Complete Count Steering Committee, UWBA, and the State allowed for more advocacy throughout the county, region, and state to ensure the Census Bureau was following through on its job.

- The combination of SwORD Hard-to-Count analysis and additional staff GIS analysis to understand various Hard-to-Count characteristics and how they impact different communities within the County. In particular, detailed language analysis allowed us to understand where non-English language populations are concentrated so that we could tailor communications and outreach in those areas with the preferred language(s).

What hindered the outreach?

- As mentioned above, COVID-19 greatly hindered our strategy of reaching people on a peer-to-peer basis. Once the county developed and adapted to safety measures to prevent the spread of the virus, we were able to conduct limited peer-to-peer communication, but not at the level we were hoping prior to the pandemic.
- The Micro-media plan being implemented behind schedule was a huge hindrance to our ability to flesh out ads in our county. We were relying on the state's buying power to purchase ads throughout the region, particularly in transit. However, Mercury was slow in providing a clear ad buy plan and we ended up having to rely on our own contacts in the county to eventually get ads up on transit, including BART. All counties in Region 3 were hoping for a more coordinated campaign and effort from the state's contractor throughout the Bay Area that was well thought out and started well in advance of the count.
- Other hindrances were the changing deadlines and disinformation from the federal government. This made it particularly difficult for us to conduct outreach as the current administration consistently changed its own position and spread misinformation, particularly around counting immigrants.

3) Describe challenges and changes occurring outside or within your organization / agency that had an impact on the outreach work. Describe how you responded to these changes to work toward achieving a complete count.

- Political climate/distrust of government, including the Federal administration threats to count or not count undocumented immigrants
 - Working with partners and community organizations on the ground to provide one-on-one communication in Hard-to-Count areas
- COVID-19
 - Pivoting to phone banking and digital outreach
 - Still putting a focus on Questionnaire Assistance
- Changing enumeration deadlines
- Coordinating with USCB, particularly with SBE
 - Core team experienced challenges coordinating to be on the ground during SBE to provide any cultural competency that may be lacking from enumerators
- Staff time and competing priorities
 - We only had one staff member in the county who was dedicated to Census Outreach full time. The Department of Conservation and Development, County Administrator's Office, and Office of District III Supervisor Diane Burgis all provided a staff member to work on Census part-time in addition to their other duties.

4) For county and ACBO partners, what was the county (or region's) 2010 response rate and what was the 2020 response rate? If the response rate met and exceeded the 2010 response rate, what contributed to that? If it did not meet the 2010 response rate, what were some of the challenges for that? For other partners, please note what data you used and how you used data for your strategies.

- Final 2010 self-response rate: 72.1%
- Final 2020 self-response rate: XX.X%
- Both the state and county dedicated increased funding to Census 2020 compared to Census 2010 (due to the challenges previously cited) and this led to our local governments taking more ownership, allowing us to increase our connections with community-based partners. In 2020, the county started working more than a year in advance of the Census to train trusted messengers and organizations throughout the county to conduct outreach and prepare their own communities for responding and being counted in Census 2020.
- The silver lining of COVID is there was additional time to conduct targeted outreach in Hard-to-Count communities, which helped the county exceed our 2010 Self-Response Rate.
- When comparing 2020 and 2010 SRRs, it's important to remember there was a foreclosure crisis in 2010 with a large number of vacant units that did not have people to respond to the census.

5) Please describe the process and results of your partnership coordination and how it educated and motivated the hard-to-count populations to complete the Census questionnaire.

The Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors allocated $500,000 of county funds to Census 2020 to support achieving a complete count. The funds were specifically to be granted out to community-based organizations to assist the county in conducting Census outreach in all areas and communities. We made more than 80 grants with community organizations, cities, and county departments who we subsequently trained to understand the importance of the census, how to be counted, and to be trusted messengers in their respective communities. Each organization was provided with training, swag, outreach materials, and support to conduct outreach activities that best suited the needs of their communities. These activities included trainings, census events, phone banking, questionnaire assistance, food distribution, census caravans, social media, and others to educate community members about the importance of responding to the census and provide them with the necessary tools to do so.

6) Please provide a list of key partners and describe their contributions of how they made a difference in your outreach efforts.

- Community-Based Organizations
 - Our main partners were community-based organizations. We granted funds to 75 organizations to help us conduct outreach in all communities throughout the county.
- County Departments and Cities

- We also granted funds to five county departments and three cities to help us educate county employees and layer in census messaging to their communications with county residents and partners.
- Health, Housing, and Homelessness CORE Team
 - A major partner was Contra Costa County's Health, Housing, and Homelessness CORE team, who was pivotal in counting our unhoused population. They coordinated directly with the Regional ACOs to provide needed information and went out into the field to support the TNSOL operation and enumerate residents who were missed.
- United Way Bay Area
 - United Way Bay Area (UWBA) (our Region 3 Administrative Community Based Organization) was a pivotal part of our success and helped us take a more regional approach to our outreach and work in tandem with all seven Bay Area counties to support one another's goals and objectives. UWBA was also extremely helpful in serving as a liaison between the state and the county. They also provided a lot of technical expertise in tracking self-response rates, navigating phone banking programs, supporting questionnaire assistance centers, language translation, and providing training materials.
- Federal, State, Regional, County Legislative & Government Partners
 - Representatives from our federal and state legislators' offices; regional, county, special district, and local government elected officials, along with appointed members of county municipal advisory councils were instrumental in helping to get the word out. They attended training workshops, invited speakers to present at their meetings and events, and pushed out messages via their communications channels. Several local cities and towns issued census response rate challenges.
- Faith Based
 - Faith-based organizations and churches in our county were an enormous help in getting the word out, particularly to our Spanish speaking residents.
- Higher Education
 - Outreach to higher education institutions played a part in getting the word out to students, faculty and staff at those locations via campus clubs and other organizations.

7) Please describe how you provided accessible and in-language outreach activities, including how you ensured equal and meaningful access to limited English proficient individuals and people with disabilities?

- We developed digital ads in multiple languages targeted throughout the county based on where we knew those languages were spoken using demographic data.
- We provided Spanish language assistance at most events/outreach activities. When we could not provide language assistance, we coordinated with the USCB Partnership Specialists to fill in any gaps.
- Our collateral and our social media toolkit were translated in all required languages.

- Our website featured seven different languages plus sign language information on the home page, contributing to a sense of inclusion and easy access to information in multiple languages.
- We presented about the importance of the Census and provided needed resources to the Developmental Disability Council of Contra Costa County.

8) Please share a story(s) of how your work has made a difference to Census 2020 and the impact on the community. Please include images and quotes, so we are able to understand the narrative behind the numbers.

After COVID hit and forced the Bay Area into a long shelter-in-place order, we were encouraged to see the number of our grantees who stepped up and worked with us to completely pivot our strategy of reaching our hardest-to-count residents and ensuring that all were counted. Many were eager to find ways to continue reaching out to their community. Grantees took on phone banking and made over 15,000 calls; provided virtual questionnaire assistance; helped us distribute census materials at food sites; planned Census Caravans in 10 cities, and helped us distribute 4,000 Census backpacks, 5,000 bilingual Census grocery bags, and countless other swag items. While this year was obviously incredibly challenging, it was also incredibly moving to see the ways in which our community stepped up to continue to support our most vulnerable residents and ensure they were safe, healthy, and counted.

Referral History:

Total 2020 Census Budget of $926,005

On December 18, 2018, the Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution No. 2018/592 proclaiming support of, and participation in, the 2020 Census, authorizing execution of the County-Optional Outreach Agreement with the State, and making the County eligible to receive up to $362,605 during fiscal years 2018-19 and 2019-20.

On July 30, 2019, at the recommendation of the 2020 Census Complete Count Steering Committee, the Board of Supervisors approved a one-time allocation of $500,000 from the County General Fund to supplement State funding for the County's expenses for outreach to hard-to-count populations.

On February 11, 2020, the Board adopted Resolution No. 2020/40 authorizing the County to accept an additional $63,400 in State Census funding to augment printing collateral and in-language support, administer census outreach activities in hard to count tracts, and establish a contingency fund for rapid deployment of resources during the self-response period, for a total State allocation of $426,005.

Budget Plan

The attached budget status shows the original proposed Census Budget as compared to the current Census budget, and actual expenditures plus encumbrances to date. Following is a brief summary of budget reallocations that were made with approval of the Steering Committee over the course of the Census Project:

- At its October 21, 2019 meeting, the Census Steering Committee approved a redistribution of funds: $10,000 in Media Buys, $26,345 in Printing Collateral and $40,000 in Outreach Tasks.
- At its December 16, 2019 meeting, the Steering Committee approved reallocation of $20,000 of the Technology funding to direct outreach to the veteran population.
- At its January 27, 2020 meeting, the Steering Committee allocated supplemental State funds of $63,400: $16,400 to Printing, $42,000 to grants allocated and $5,000 to Contingency/Non-response Follow Up.
- At its March 16, 2020 meeting, the Steering Committee approved a redistribution of funds with flexibility to the Finance Subcommittee to align funds with the COVID-19 restrictions. At the May 11, 2020 Joint Outreach and Finance Subcommittee meeting, the subcommittees approved the redistribution of funds for digital and transit ads during the COVID-19 restrictions.

Referral Update:

Due to the abrupt halt of the Census self-response and field data collection period, it is unlikely that all of the County funds allocated to the Census project will be expended. Encumbered amounts and projected balances are only estimates based on outstanding invoices, mini-grant commitments, and staff costs. Actual costs will not be known until all remaining obligations are closed out.

Note that two State revenue payments remain outstanding. Staff is following up with the State on the missing payment of $32,634 invoiced at the beginning of this year. The final payment of $18,130 will be due upon the County's submittal of the final report to the State.

The County Administrator's Office will make all necessary technical adjustments to close out the project budget and will provide an updated close-out report at the final Steering Committee meeting.

Recommendation(s)/Next Step(s):

ACCEPT the Census 2020 budget update.

Fiscal Impact (if any):

None. This is an informational report.
