Dear Ms. Anderson,

Darlene Gee suggested I contact you.

I believe you should allow some in-home services. I am a piano tuner and when we go into people's homes we usually work alone, certainly distanced, we disinfect the instruments, wear masks and gloves, and can be paid electronically. With more people turning to music as solace and with piano teachers working remotely and giving lessons via zoom our services are needed more than ever and we can perform them without putting people at risk.

Thank you for your consideration.

Linda Kay
