Please explain why you would like to serve on this particular board, committee, or commission.

Over the years I have been active and have served on several different commissions, committees, councils, and organizations as an advocate for older adults. It's important work and I believe a lot needs to be done to insure older adults remain safe, secure, and well represented and I would like to continue that work.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume with this application)

Founder and Executive Director of ElderTech Academy; Current member-at-large of the Advisory Council on Aging; Member, ACOA Executive Committee; Founding Chair, ACOA Technology Work Group; Past Chair and current Vice Chair, El Cerrito Committee on Aging; co-author, Young@Heart: Computing For Seniors (McGraw/Hill), co-author, The Grown-Ups Guide to Computing (Microsoft Press).
