Qualifications and Volunteer Experience

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume with this application)

I am quite familiar with general aviation and have flown out of Byron airport. As a lawyer with 38 years' experience, I am familiar with how government agencies operate and have had experience dealing with them. My legal career included over three years as an Assistant District Attorney in Manhattan, over nine years as a federal prosecutor (AUSA) in New Jersey, over six years as Deputy General Counsel at UBS Financial Services, Inc., and over seventeen years as a partner at three international law firms. In December 2020, I retired from "BigLaw" to set up my own solo practice in Walnut Creek, and I currently handled white collar criminal matters, administrative enforcement actions against financial services professionals, and investor disputes with securities firms.
