

The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, California

In the matter of:

Resolution No. 2022/110

In the matter of recognizing Carolyn Considine as the 2022 Youth Hall of Fame Awardee for Good Samaritan

WHEREAS, every March, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors hosts a celebration in honor of César E. Chávez in recognition of his commitment to social justice and respect for human dignity; and

WHEREAS, this year's theme is Advancing Our Generations with Unity – Avanzando Nuestras Generaciones con Unidad; and

WHEREAS, we take this opportunity to share stories of local students who are working hard to move us forward and improve the lives of others; and

WHEREAS, we recognize these students with the Youth Hall of Fame Awards during the celebration for their contributions to our community and in the spirit of one of our country's most treasured activists: César E. Chávez; and

WHEREAS, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors is proud to recognize Carolyn Considine, an 11th grader from Campolindo High School; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn is the Youth Advisor on the Arts and Culture Commission of Contra Costa County. Once shelter-in-place began, she created a virtual art gallery where high school students could continue to showcase their work and share their creative process. Online viewers were able to interact, comment and ask questions to panelists; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn also organized the first county-wide high school art exhibit. After contacting every high school art teacher in Contra Costa, the exhibition had over 100 pieces representing 27 high schools; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn went on to develop an art exhibit housed at the County Office of Education titled, "The Art of Resilience" which featured works from over twenty Contra Costa high school students; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn created a program called Justice Murals which originally focused on raising awareness for social justice within the County's high schools. The first mural is installed in Contra Costa Juvenile Hall; and

WHEREAS, Justice Murals has grown and worked with Afghan refugees and is currently addressing the art that has been destroyed in Ukraine. Justice Murals has had displays around the bay area and New Mexico; and

WHEREAS, Carolyn is the co-founder of a non-profit called Meaningful Teens which connects teens with volunteer opportunities. Since last May, they've connected 250 volunteers to corresponding opportunities. Carolyn has a clear passion for her community.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors recognizes Carolyn Considine as the 2022 Youth Hall of Fame Awardee for Good Samaritan, and for exemplifying the values of service, integrity, kindness, activism, and leadership that César Chávez embodied through his life.
