Exhibit A

BNSF Railway Company

Factual Reasons the Tax was Illegally Levied and Collected

The tax rates applied to the assessed value of BNSF Railway Company's ("BNSF") property exceed the tax rates applicable to other commercial and industrial property in the various taxing districts within this county. These excessive tax rates violate Section 306(1)(c) of the Railroad Revitalization and Regulatory Reform Act of 1976, codified at 49 U.S.C. Section 11501(b)(3), which prohibits state and local governments from levying or collecting any ad valorem property tax on railroad property at a tax rate higher than the tax rate generally applicable to commercial and industrial property in the same assessment jurisdiction. To the extent that the tax rates applied to the assessed values of BNSF's property exceed the tax rates as calculated pursuant to the decision of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in Trailer Train Company v. State Board of Equalization, 697 F.2d 860 (9th Cir.), cert. denied, 464 U.S. 846 (1983), the levy and collection of the excessive taxes violated Section 306(1)(c).

For similar reasons, the tax rate also violates California law, including but not limited to Article XIII, Section 19 of the California Constitution. This provision requires that railway property such as BNSF's property "be subject to taxation to the same extent and in the same manner as other property." Art XXIII, Section 19. In other words, pursuant to the California Supreme Court's decision in ITT World Communications, Inc. v. City and County of San Francisco, 37 Cal.3d 859, 870 (Cal. 1985), Article XIII, Section 19 of the California Constitution requires that BNSF's property must be levied on at the same rate as locally assessed property.

Therefore, the excessive taxes were illegally levied and erroneously and illegally collected, entitling BNSF to a refund of the excessive taxes with interest, costs, and attorney's fees as allowed by law, pursuant to Cal. Rev. & Tax Code Section 5096 et seq. and any other applicable statute, rule, and regulation.

This refund claim is being filed with the Board of Supervisors, the Treasurer/Tax Collector, and the California State Board of Equalization. Please contact Alan Annis at (817) 352-3418 for any further information.
