As the Disaster Program Manager for Contra Costa County's Red Cross, I am the only employee in the county and oversee all of our departments, programs, and volunteers. If you are looking for a representative for the humanitarian/disaster side of the Red Cross, I am your person! I was referred to this position by Brian Oftedal, as he's noticed the position has been empty for a couple of years.

Describe your qualifications for this appointment. (NOTE: you may also include a copy of your resume with this application)

Currently serving as the Disaster Program Manager for the Red Cross of Contra Costa County. I am involved in all disaster responses, from home fire to flood to earthquake to wildfire and beyond. I am heavily intertwined with County OES/EOC and their operations and act as a representative for all disaster response operations in this county where care & sheltering play a part. More relevant to EMS, I oversee our DHS (Disaster Health Services) volunteers and operation where we provide urgent medical resources to victims of disaster. This includes loss of medications in disaster, emergency medical supplies for disaster, staffing of volunteer nurses, doctors, and EMS professionals in sheltering, and support for residents with access and functional needs in this county (AFN).
