

The Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, California

In the matter of recognizing the contributions of Jay Winter on his 25 years of service to Contra Costa County

Resolution No. 2015/163

WHEREAS, Jay Winter began his career with Contra Costa County in April, 1991 as a Steamfitter for the General Services Department; and

WHEREAS, in 1995, Jay received a commendation from the Health Services Department for his assistance in achieving their number one goal in creating a more professional health care environment for their patients in the Family Practice Center remodel project; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, Jay received a commendation from Lieutenant Gorton for his outstanding work product and sensitivity to the needs of the facility. Lieutenant Gorton also stated he worked tirelessly fixing problems at the facility, always exhibited a "can do" attitude, exceptional customer service skills, and excellent work ethic; and

WHEREAS, in June 2007, Jay received a commendation from the Community Services Bureau for his exceptional work efforts displayed in completing various projects at their HeadStart facilities, leading to a favorable review by the Federal Review Team; and

WHEREAS, in October 2007, Jay received a commendation for his professional skills and cooperative spirit in assisting with the remodel of buildings 5 and 6 at the George Miller Center in Concord for the Community Services Bureau; and

WHEREAS, Jay has demonstrated and maintained a high level of professionalism, strong work ethic, and exceptional customer service skills in his assignments at the Contra Costa Regional Medical Center and the County Detention Facilities; and

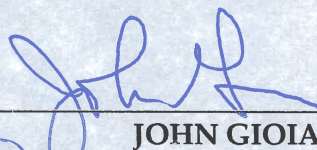

WHEREAS, the County has been the beneficiary of his ability to evaluate a situation and use his skills to fabricate a part or fix a piece of equipment so business operations continue while saving the County time and money during a crisis; such as capping a live water main to minimize costly water damage inside of a County facility or crawling in the muck to repair a waste line or sewer ejector system. Jay is always ready to take on any challenge or difficult task without hesitation; and

WHEREAS, Jay Winter's many years of service and familiarity to the County infrastructure are an invaluable asset and he has continued to maintain the same level of professionalism, craftsmanship, and customer service since day one in serving Contra Costa County; and

WHEREAS, Jay Winter is well respected and appreciated by his peers, co-workers, customers, the Public Works Department, and the Facilities Management Team. Jay is an integral part of the Facilities Services Division.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County does hereby recognize Jay Winter for his 25 years of dedicated service to Contra Costa County and for the work performed by him during his career.

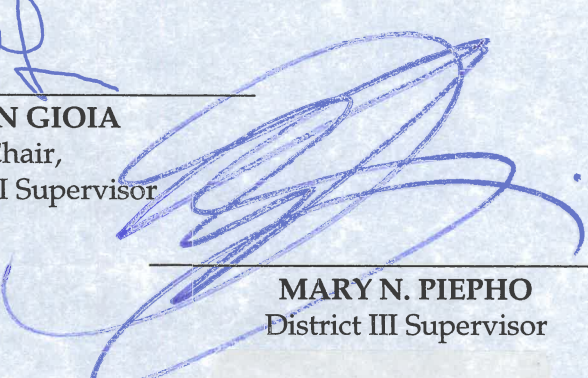

PASSED by a unanimous vote of the Board of Supervisors members present this 9th day of June, 2015.
