

Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County, California

IN THE MATTER OF PROCLAIMING APRIL 10-16, 2016 AS
"NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK"

RESOLUTION NO. 2016/136

WHEREAS, Americans are the victims of more than 20 million crimes each year and these crimes can touch the lives of anyone regardless of age, national origin, race, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, immigration, or economic status; and

WHEREAS, Many victims face challenges in finding appropriate services, including victims with disabilities, young victims of color, Deaf and hard of hearing victims, LGBTQ victims, tribal victims, elder victims, victims with mental illness, immigrant victims, teen victims, victims with limited English proficiency, and others; and

WHEREAS, Too many communities feel disconnected from the justice and social response systems, and have lost in the ability of those systems to recognize them and respond to their needs; and

WHEREAS, Victims of repeat victimization who fail to receive support services are at greater risk for long term consequences of crime; and

WHEREAS, The victim services community has worked for decades to create an environment for victims that is safe, supportive, and effective; and

WHEREAS, Intervening early with services that support and empower victims provides a pathway to recovery from crime and abuse; and

WHEREAS, Honoring the rights of victims, including the right to be heard and to be treated with fairness, dignity and respect, and working to meet their needs rebuilds their trust in the criminal justice and social service systems; and

WHEREAS, Serving victims and rebuilding their trust restores hope to victims and survivors, as well as their communities; and

WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week, April 10-16, 2016, is an opportune time to commit to ensuring that all victims of crime—even those who are challenging to reach or serve—are offered culturally and linguistically accessible and appropriate services in the aftermath of crime; and

WHEREAS, the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors is joining forces with the victim service providers, criminal justice agencies, and concerned citizens throughout Contra Costa County and America to raise awareness of victims' rights and observe National Crime Victims' Right Week.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of Contra Costa County does hereby reaffirm their commitment to respect and enforce victims' rights and address their needs during and throughout the year, and is hereby dedicated to serving victims, building trust and restoring hope for justice and healing.

PASSED by a unanimous vote of the Board of Supervisors members present this 12th day of April, 2016.
