Resolution No. 2022/271

In The Matter Of Agreement Number IF-2223-07 between the California Department of Aging (CDA) and Contra Costa County for the period July 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024.

WHEREAS, COVID-19 disproportionately impacted older Californians as a result of long periods of staying at home during the pandemic, increasing their experience of social isolation, decline in health, emotional trauma, and economic insecurity, and WHEREAS, Governor Gavin Newsom approved $51.7 million in Older Adults Recovery and Resilience (OARR) – Home and Community Based Services (HCBS) funds to strengthen older adults and family caregivers’ resilience and recovery from the devastating effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, and WHEREAS, through Agreement Number IF-2223-07, Contra Costa County has been awarded a total of $1,648,971 in OARR-HCBS funds distributed as follows: $80,860 for Family Caregiver Support, $650,233 for Older Californians Nutrition and Intergenerational Activities, $632,638 for Senior Legal Services, and $285,240 for Dignity at Home Fall Prevention, and WHEREAS, OARR-HCBS funds provide the County the opportunity to explore new initiatives that connect individuals across generations and expand services with existing contractors that provide family caregiver, congregate and home-delivered meals, legal assistance, and fall prevention services, and WHEREAS, the Area Agency on Aging, a division in the County’s Employment and Human Services Department, will administer Agreement Number IF-2223-07 by distributing, managing, and monitoring contracts with community service providers that receive OARR-HCBS funds and may retain up to 10% of the funding for administration, not exceeding $164,897, with no cost to the County,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors approve and authorize the Employment and Human Services Director, or designee, to accept funding in an amount not to exceed $1,648,971 from the California Department of Aging for Agreement Number IF-2223-07 for the period July 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024.

I hereby certify that this is a true and correct copy of an action taken and entered on the minutes of the Board of Supervisors on the date shown.
