Subject: In the Matter of Recognizing How to be a Conservator Workshop and its Volunteers

RECOMMENDATION(S):

In the Matter of Recognizing How to be a Conservator Workshop and the volunteers who degenerate their time to the programs success.

FISCAL IMPACT:

None.

BACKGROUND:

Contra Costa County has a growing senior population who are unable to care for themselves and their finances. In the county, various volunteer programs help our aging seniors allow the county to save money and allocate resources to critical programs. One of these volunteer programs is the "How to be a Conservator" workshop. This workshop trains families and others on how to take care of a senior who is unable to provide properly for their personal needs for physical health, food, clothing, shelter and also who are unable to manage their own finances.
