management, public health, and program research/evaluation. Terms for all seats are two years.

BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

There are currently 4 vacancies and the recommendation of the Employment and Human Services Director and FACT is to reappoint three of the Committee's current members. All candidates have expressed a sincere interest in continuing to serve on the Committee and are dedicated to fulfilling the mission and goals as outlined in the Committees' policies and procedures and the FACT committee membership has approved of these reappointments.

The Family and Human Services Committee reviewed the proposed reappointments and approved the recommendation at their June 26, 2017 meeting.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

The seats will remain vacant.
