Subject: REAPPOINTMENT TO THE AVIATION ADVISORY COMMITTEE

---

RECOMMENDATION(S):

REAPPOINT the following individual to the District 3 seat on the Aviation Advisory Committee to a term expiring March 1, 2021, as recommended by Supervisor Diane Burgis.

Ron Reagan
Brentwood, CA 94513

FISCAL IMPACT:

None.

BACKGROUND:

The Aviation Advisory Committee (AAC) was established by the Board of Supervisors to provide advice and recommendations to the Board of Supervisors on the aviation issues related to the economic viability and security of airports in Contra Costa County. The AAC is mandated to cooperate with local, state, and national aviation interests for the safe and orderly operation of airports; advance and promote the interests of aviation; and protect the general welfare of the people living and working near the airport and the County in general. The AAC may initiate discussions, observations, or investigations and may hear comments on airport and aviation matters from public or other agencies in order to formulate recommendations to the Board. In conjunction with all of the above, the AAC provides a forum for the Director of Airports regarding policy matters at and around the airports.

The AAC is composed of 11 members who must be County residents: one appointed by each Supervisor; one from and nominated to the Board by the City of Concord; one from and nominated to the Board by the City of Pleasant Hill; one from and nominated to the Board by Diablo Valley College; one from and nominated to the Board by the Contra Costa County Airports Business Association; and two at large to represent the general community, to be nominated to the Internal Operations Committee by the Aviation Advisory Committee. At least one of the above shall be a member of the Airport Land Use Commission.

Terms for AAC seats are three years ending March 1.

The seat will expire March 1, 2018. Applications were accepted and the recommendation to reappoint the above individual was then determined.
