efforts are to ensure that case coordination, collaboration, and prevention activities around CSEC/Y are effectively addressed and the requirements set forth by the California Department of Social Services are met. The CFS CSEC/Y Program works closely with the Contra Costa Human Trafficking Coalition to ensure streamlined, trauma informed > coordination and collaboration. The Coalition is a partnership of agencies working to raise awareness, build capacity, and increase access to services for victims of human trafficking. The partnerships represent a combination of public and private entities, which include traditional law enforcement agencies as well as community-based organizations. As a collaboration of agencies, the Coalition's goals include:

BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

- Conducting public awareness activities;
- Providing training, technical assistance, and a forum to share best practices;
- Establishing policies and protocols; and
- Creating a coordinated system of care.

Contractor will provide CSEC/Y program coordination/collaboration; program implementation and management; and will work with at-risk or in-risk Children/Youth, families, other CSEC/Y contractors/staff and CFS staff; to oversee and enact a coordinated, trauma-informed and streamlined CSEC/Y Program for CFS.

This contract is a result of the open bid process, Request for Interest (RFI) #633.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Coordination and provision of services will not be provided by subject matter expert.
