

Contra
Costa
County

To: Board of Supervisors
From: Marc Shorr, Chief Information Officer
Date: July 30, 2019

Subject: East Bay Regional Communications System (EBRCS) Interagency Agreement Amendment/Extension

RECOMMENDATION(S):

APPROVE and AUTHORIZE the Chief Information Officer, or designee, to execute an Interagency Agreement amendment effective June 20, 2019 with the East Bay Regional Communications System Authority (EBRCSA), to extend the term through June 30, 2021 and increase the payment limit to the County by $460,000 to a new payment limit of $1,820,000, allowing the Department of Information Technology's Radio Group to continue to provide radio and microwave related services for the East Bay Regional Communication System (EBRCS) P-25 Public Safety Communication System.

FISCAL IMPACT:

The revenue accrues to the Department of Information Technology Radio Group.

BACKGROUND:

The EBRCS Joint Powers Authority (JPA) has approved and directed that Contra Costa County Radio Service Staff serve as one of the primary service providers to perform system repair, installation, programming, and upgrade services as directed by the JPA for the radio sites and 9-1-1 dispatch centers on the East Bay Regional Communications System. The County has provided this service to the JPA since December 4, 2012.

BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

In accordance with Administrative Bulletin No 104, actions to initiate new or expanded programs or projects following adoption of the final budget require approval of the County Administrator and the Board of Supervisors. The County Administrator's Office has reviewed this request and recommends approval.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Loss of revenue for the Department of Information Technology's Radio Group.
