guidelines and compliance and can be customized to work with County policies and procedures. Previous payments to 340B Holdings, LLC (formerly known as eAudit Health Solutions) were processed under blanket purchase order F00872, which expires on July 31, 2019.

Approval of Master Services Agreement #23-659 will allow Contractor to continue to provide services through July 31, 2022.

The Master Services Agreement provides that the County will indemnify 340B Holdings, LLC for losses and damages resulting from any breach of the agreement by the County and for any negligent or wrongful acts or omissions by County in performance of the agreement.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

If this agreement is not approved, split billing and audit software will not be available and patient care would be severely jeopardized in the event of a system failure. Furthermore, the County could be found out of compliance with the HRSA guidelines.
