Homeless Coordinated Entry System of Care providing support services to Contra Costa County families that are homeless, including case management, day shelter services, transportation needs, mental health assessment and crisis intervention.

On October 23, 2018, the Board of Supervisors approved Contract #25-042-25 (as amended by Contract Amendment Agreement #25-042-26) with Greater Richmond Inter-Faith Program to provide emergency shelter services at the Emergency Family Shelter for homeless families and operate the West County CARE/Warming Center for the Homeless Coordinated Entry System of Care, for the period from October 1, 2018 through September 30, 2019.

Approval of Contract #25-042-27 will allow the Contractor to continue to provide homeless services through June 30, 2021.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

If this contract is not approved, County's homeless clients will not receive supportive services from care centers.
