BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

of long-term care residents, document and report investigations of physical abuse of residents of long-term care facilities, and education and training on seniors' rights, benefits, and entitlements. This Amendment allocates a portion of the California Department on Aging's annual redistribution of unused funds from all California counties in relation to long-term care ombudsman services.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Dependent adults and Seniors in Contra Costa County receiving long-term care will not receive ombudsman services that protect and support them.
