BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

services, creation of Family Councils for support of families of long-term care residents, document and report investigations of physical abuse of all dependent adult and elder residents of long-term care facilities, education and training on seniors' rights, benefits, and entitlements. This Amendment allocates a portion of the California Department on Aging's annual redistribution of unused funds from all California counties in relation to long-term care ombudsman services. Funds will be used for needed program supplies and COVID-19 safety supplies for volunteers.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Contractor will be unable to purchase needed program supplies and COVID-19 safety supplies for the volunteers.
