Services Department.

BACKGROUND: (CONT'D)

The contractor provides general application configuration services including day end and month end processing, report processing and distribution, CalWin payment file processing and RPCS file management.

The contract includes a special condition to the Limitation of Liability section of the General Conditions which caps liability of the Contractor from any cause that does not exceed the dollar amount paid by the County under this Contract during the six calendar months prior to such claim.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

If this contract is not approved, the department runs the risk of not processing CalWin payments timely.
