Subject: 2021 California Wildfires Cost Recovery

RECOMMENDATION(S):

ADOPT Resolution No. 2021/284 approving and authorizing the Sheriff-Coroner, or designee, to enter into Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with the County of Plumas, and any other future Counties of make mutual aid response requests, for cost recovery associated with the emergency mutual aid responses to the 2021 California Wildfires, Federal Emergency Disaster Funds, FEMA-5400-FM-CA.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Cost Recovery. (100% Federal)

BACKGROUND:

The Contra Costa County Office of the Sheriff provided law enforcement mutual aid to the County of Plumas. Federal and State funds are now available for reimbursement of actual costs associated with providing mutual aid services. In order for the Office of the Sheriff to participate in the cost recovery program, the Federal Emergency Management Agency requires all affected counties to enter into a Memorandum of Agreement with those entities that provided mutual aid during the disaster. Approval of the MOAs will enable the Office
