Subject: Clarification of 10/18/22 Board Order Item C. 45 with Fresh Lifelines for Youth's STAY FLY Program

RECOMMENDATION(S):

APPROVE clarification of Board action on October 18, 2022 (C. 45) which authorized the Chief Probation Officer, or designee, to execute a contract with the Fresh Lifelines for Youth, to correct the term to September 1, 2022 through August 31, 2025, to operate its STAY FLY Program to respond to the needs of Contra Costa County's Transition Aged Youth to prevent further justice system involvement with no change to the contract limit of $1,043,045.

FISCAL IMPACT:

100% Community Corrections Performance Incentive funds (SB 678)

BACKGROUND:

Founded in 2000, Fresh Lifelines for Youth is a nonprofit organization that services youth in the juvenile justice system as well as those who are at risk of involvement. They educate youth about the law, they support them to become leaders among their peers, and they provide them with positive mentors and role models.

Under this agreement, Fresh Lifelines for Youth will operate its STAY FLY Program in Contra Costa County. The STAY FLY Program is a reentry program for ages 18-25 years old that combines law related education, case management/coaching, prosocial events, and systems and community collaboration, to decrease youth's justice system involvement, increase youth's academic progress, build youth's social-emotional learning, mobilize non-traditionally engaged institutions to support youth at risk of justice system involvement, and improve effectiveness of justice and education system practices for Transition Aged Youth.

On October 18, 2022 (item C. 45) the Board approved and authorized the Chief Probation Officer to execute a contract with Fresh Lifelines for Youth to operate its STAY FLY Program for an amount not to exceed $1,043,045 with a term September 1, 2022 through October 30, 2025. This Board Order is requesting your approval to change the term of the funding agreement to September 1, 2022 through August 31, 2025.

CONSEQUENCE OF NEGATIVE ACTION:

Without this contract, Contra Costa County's Transition Aged Youth population will fail to receive adequate support service.

CHILDREN'S IMPACT STATEMENT:

Not applicable.
